

The Tree of life is Kneijnsberg & van Eijks first time piece. This beautiful and special design has a in-house developed mechanical module for displaying the seasons. It is a tribute to life and the changes we all go through. From our birth to our passing, from our lows to our highs, the Tree of Life celebrates them by display the changing colours of a deciduous tree symbolising the everlasting cycle of life.

The watch is produced in a limited edition of 300 pieces and the first 55 pieces of this edition are offered as a special pre order offer. The watch will feature a handcrafted MOP dial or a brass matt white dial. The MOP dial is a delicate part and it commemorates the organic feel of the watch. The case will be featured in 3 colours, steel, black and yellow gold double. All the cases have a satin brushed finish and is designed to have an integrated bracelet. The case has a see through case back which shows the engraved protective movement cover.

Kneijnsberg & van Eijk is a starting watch brand and with the launch of their first time pieces they are aiming to become an independent watch manufacturer. High end mechanical watch will be the core of their product range. Swiss movements are powering the modules which display their special complications.

As a family driven company they take great care in making their watches and this is clearly visible in their unique design and dedication to quality. Owning a Kneijnsberg & van Eijk timepiece will be a great supplement to your collection and wearing it will set you apart from the mainstream watch devotees. For we all play a part in life's great theatre, Kneijnsberg & van Eijk emphasises this by saying:

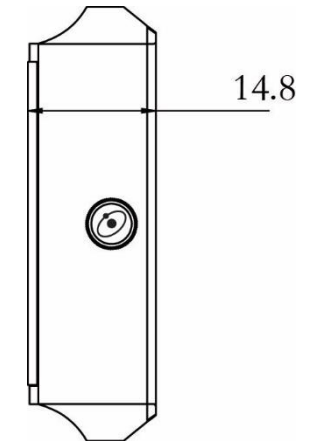

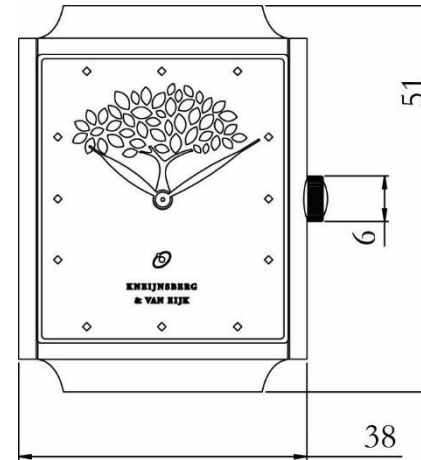

”Sometimes things just end, and Sometimes things just start”
